On October 2, Advocates for Basic Legal Equality, Inc. (ABLE) and Legal Aid of Western Ohio, Inc. (LAWO) are bringing clients together with important community resources.

Legal Aid attorneys and advocates will be available for brief advice and counsel. Local human services and government agencies will be on hand to provide easy access to their services. Assistance with completing paperwork, information on available resources for seniors, and seminars on managing your debt and preventing foreclosure are just a few of the activities available. Join us under the big tent at the Center for Equal Justice, at the corner of Jefferson and Huron Streets.

For more information, visit us online at www.building4justice.org.
